GLO Airlines

Calvin Clifford (“Trey”) Fayard, III is the founder and chief executive officer of FlyGLO LLC (GLO), as well as of-counsel to the New Orleans based Fayard Law Firm.

Most recently, Mr. Fayard was the managing director of Cornerstone Gas Corporation and founding principal at Coliseum Property Group. Early in his career, Trey was employed at Maersk Sealand/A.P. Moeller where he assisted in the managing of vessel and cargo operations for African and South American services into all discharge ports in the United States.

Mr. Fayard earned a J.D. degree from Tulane University Law School, studied shipping, trade and finance at City University London and received a B.A. in political science from Southern Methodist University.

The Gulf and Mid-South regions are currently underserved by air carriers, forcing an over-reliance on road travel between the regions’ cities. Founded in 2013, GLO is addressing these travel needs, offering daily non-stop services between its base in New Orleans and Shreveport, Little Rock, Memphis and Destin-Fort Walton Beach.

T. “Ike” Awagu is the son of a Rotarian (now deceased) who was a very active member of the Rotary Club of Aba, Nigeria during the early 1970’s.
In 1982 Ike received his B.S. and MBA degrees from Texas Southern University majoring in marketing and chemistry.
After working as a chemist, Ike joined Primerica in 1994 and now serves that organization as regional vice-president from his office at 3020 Knight St. He has been a member of our community for over 25 year and is a member of the African-American Chamber of Commerce.
Ike and wife Cindy have five children and six grandchildren. His classification is Securities & Financial Planning and his sponsor is Don Howard.

Bridges Hall, a Mansfield native, worked in his family’s manufacturing business for 7 years after receiving his B.S. from Northwestern State University and his MBA from LSUS.
He then joined Hibernia Bank and when Red River Bank opened in Shreveport, he joined them working with Rotarian Harold Turner as a commercial lender for seven years. In the meantime, Bridges became a graduate of the Graduate School of Banking at LSU.
In 2013 Bridges became the chief credit officer for Red River Bank and managed the credit underwriting and overall credit functions. In 2015 he became the market president for Red River Bank in northwest Louisiana. His office is located at 601 Market St. in downtown Shreveport.
Bridges and his wife Abby have two sons, Ben and Simon.
His classification is Banking and his sponsor is Bob Hamm.
