Keynote

Digital Wellness

Dr. Johnette Magner is an Assistant Professor of Communication and Media Studies at Louisiana Tech University. She teaches coursework in communications, journalism, public relations and digital wellness.

She is also the University's Executive Director of External Affairs. In that role, she educates and advocates with governmental bodies on behalf of the University.

As the former founding Executive Director of the Shreveport-Bossier Business Alliance for Higher Education (SBBA) she was instrumental in establishing doctoral degrees and helping to secure stable funding for the region's universities.

Prior to her work with the SBBA, she served LSUS as interim Vice Chancellor of Development. Before returning to Shreveport in 2010, she was a Vice-President of Public Affairs with Ketchum and managed global communications for Joint Commission International.

Johnette has been an active civic leader, serving as the first female Board President in the 90-year history of the Norwela Council of the Boy Scouts of America. She also served as the Board President of SciPort Discovery Center and as a Vice-President of the Board for the Greater Shreveport Chamber of Commerce, Providence House, Shreveport Junior League and the Women's Philanthropy Network. She was the 2015 recipient of the Athena Award given by the Shreveport Chamber of Commerce.

After receiving her B.A. degree from University of Texas-Austin and her M.A. from LSUS, she earned her Ph.D. in mass communication from the University of Maryland.
