ANGEL MARTIN

Angel Martin serves as the Director of Student Life at LSU Shreveport. She is a Bossier City native receiving her undergraduate and graduate degrees from Northwestern State University. During her 16 years at LSUS, Angel has focused on student wellness, leadership, and service learning. Angel advises several student groups that make a substantial impact on the student life experience. She also launched the LSUS Food Pantry which aims to reduce food insecurity among students. Angel's goal is to serve as a mentor for employees and students, empowering them to thrive. Outside of her career, Angel is a USAT All-American triathlete, qualifying for the Ironman World Championships in 2023. She aims to use these accomplishments to inspire others through her story of achievement despite lifelong adversity.

LAWRENCE CALHOUN ON RYLA & JIMMY ALLEN SCHOLARSHIP PRESENTATION

From last week...

1. Our speaker Dr. Sam Silverblatt, who kept us on our toes during his presentation!
2. Rotarian Greg Morrison and his guest Randall Lyles enjoying lunch!
3. Our two fantastic newest members: Scott Ward, President of Southern Components Inc., and Krystle Beauchamp, Communications Manager for Caddo Parish and Solar Systems Ambassador. Give them a big Rotary welcome when you see them at the next meeting!
4. George Carroll, our Blood Drive Committee Chair and devoted Rotarian, became a Paul Harris Fellow on Tuesday! Congratulations George!
